

Holiday Visitors

Pastor Tilly of "House of Mercy" visited with special helpers to share their Holiday Joy and Carols.

"Ms. Phyllis Anderson and Ms. Cheryl Mack joined the Holiday Spectacular"

Pastor Tilly's special helper read "Twas the Night before Christmas".

Ms. Shelia Wilkerson of TD Bank visited encouraging the students to SAVE, SAVE, SAVE by reading "Trouble with Money" by "The Bernstien Bears.

Ms. Sandra McKnight, Education Supervisor also visited for the Holidays.

Season Greetings

December 23, 2011

Mr. and Mrs. Clause shared their "Holiday Cbeer" with the "Children and Families of Broadway Mini Mall". Mrs. Sanders escorted Roselynn Lopez-Erazo to her seat after receiving her special gift from Mr. and Mrs. Clause performed by "Rasheem Jones and Mrs. Betsy Salcedo"

Happy holidays from our family to yours!

Santa, "Mr. Eduardo Soto" and Santa's Helper, Ms. Maria Perez shared their "Holiday Cheer". Thank you Parent Coordinator, "Esther Mendoza" and the "Parent Policy Council" for your gifts.

Rachel Hamarine leads Nazarene singing "Rudolph the Red Nose Reindeer." "Great Job Friends"

Ms. Angel Barbar, Mrs. Roniesha Sanders and their students performed, "Santa is on his Way" for "The Broadway Mini Mall Holiday Spectacular"

Ms. Milagros Iprashad and her students opened the "Holiday Spectacular" with "Twinkle Twinkle, Christmas Lights"

Hispanic Heritage Play

Nazarene Celebrates Puerto Rican Heritage Day

"Cake is the best way to top off a celebration".

Nazarene I and II opened the play singing,

"We All Live Together" in English and Spanish to demonstrate we are a diverse country that recognizes and respects every ethnicity, race, and/or creed in the United States of America.

Mitchelle Flores and Elizabeth Nieves led the parade with hand crafted festive flags celebrating the "Puerto Rican Heritage Day"

"Ms. Frazier joins the Puerto Rican Day Parade".

Broadway Mini Mall Celebrates Puerto Rican Heritage Day

"Ms. Howard's and Ms. Betsey's Parents celebrated the "Puerto Rican Heritage Day".

Sky Daniels, Jasmin De'Valle, and Briana Calva led the celebration singing "Coqui" A popular song about a Puerto Rican Frog.

Nazarene takes the spotlight again singing, "Five Little Monkeys" in English and Spanish as the parents cheered and took lots of pictures. Although, we were celebrating the "Puerto Rican Heritage" other Hispanic Countries were recognized, take a closer look at the festive flags in the background.

Nazarene's parents, Ms. Frazier and Ms. Iris, joined hands in the kitchen.

Broadway Mini Mall Loves to Entertain!!!!

Ms. Mili's and Ms. Allen's parents also participated in the "Puerto Rican Heritage Day.

Ms. Angel Barbar's Class sings "Friends, 1,2,3, in Spanish. Each student wore a sash or a hat influenced by their native country, Josemary De-Leon-Richardo is Ms. Puerto Rico. "How Lovely"

Raul Lopez directs Ms. Mili's, Ms. Allen's, and Ms. Perez's class to a "Ricky Martin Hit Song, "Motorcycle". Look at the vivid Puerto Rican costumes on the girls and Senor Frogs hats the boys. Way to go friends!

Season's Greetings!

Spotlight on Dramatic Play

Ms. Kjana Howard introduced her Thanksgiving Celebration with a ribbon cutting ceremony of "The Market Place". Ms. Howard explained, "Our families buy groceries from The Market Place" for Thanksgiving Dinner.

Keymiyah ShinHolster and Skye Daniel demonstrated the role of a "Cashier" and a "Customer".

Jasmin DelValle and Briana Calva also imitated the role of a "Cashier" and a "Customer".

A great way to build self confidence, fine motor skills, emergent writing and literacy; is to encourage a student to write their name. "Looking good Ms. Allen".

Nazarene's friends learn to play to the Harp!

Mr. Eduardo Soto invites Nazarene's students to "Harp'e Sonata De'Chieza" instructed by "Pastor Ronald Perez" to learn to play "The Harp". The students were eager to play the instrument independently. We would also like to thank "Pastor Perez" for being a special guest for "Our Holiday Spectacular at Nazarene."

Look who popped in for HOLIDAY INSPECTION!

Renee Melendez, Eva Slater, and AUSE Dyer of Facilities

Arlenys Rivera assisted "Pastor Perez" playing "Jingle Bells" on the Harp.

Season Greetings from Broadway Mini Mall and Nazarene

"Ms. Betsey Salcedo and Mr. Rasheen Jones are creating a Winter Wonderland for the Holiday Play"